

Family Networking Meeting
at London Inter Faith Centre
125 Salusbury Road, Kilburn, London, NW6
10.00 until 13.00, 12 December 2006

You are invited to a meeting for Christians and Muslims to explore some of the challenges facing Muslim and Christian families in contemporary society.

Hosted by

Humera Khan, Family Specialist, Christian Muslim Forum and An-Nisa Society

Julian Bond, Director of Management and Communication, Christian Muslim Forum

We will:

- share Christian and Islamic principles and ethics of family life
- consider the challenges and barriers to family life today
- explore where Christians and Muslims share similar concerns
- identify issues to take forward together

Please bring with you – your thoughts and any useful resources

Lunch will be provided

This event is being held in preparation for a larger 'round table' meeting in February 2007.

Places are limited and we will be seeking to achieve equal numbers of Christians and Muslims. If you would like to attend please email info@christianmuslimforum.org or phone 0207 936 9078. Visit <http://www.londoninterfaith.org.uk/> for location details.
