

Women at the Well

A Weekend Retreat for Muslim and Christian Women

A well is a place for meeting; it is a place where strangers gather in a common task; it is a place of encounter where words are exchanged and stories are shared; it is a source of refreshment along the journey.

Scargill House,
Kettlewell,
Skipton,
N. Yorks,
BD23 5HU

19th – 21st January 2007

This retreat is for women who:

- are rooted in their own faith tradition
- want to reflect upon how their spirituality underpins their lives as women
- are curious as to how women of another faith approach the questions that life throws up

The weekend offers the opportunity to share faith and wisdom through discussion, creative arts, walking in the Dales landscape, sharing in good food and fun. It will be facilitated by Dilly Baker, Leader of the Scargill Community and Wahida Shaffi, Coordinator Women Working Towards Excellence, both are members of the Christian/Muslim Forum.

Numbers are limited. If you are interested in joining the retreat then please contact Dilly (t: 01756 760234 e: warden@scargillhouse.co.uk) or Wahida (t: 07770 530191 e: wahidashaffi@aol.com) for an initial conversation. Booking forms are available from Scargill House.

A minimum donation of £30 is requested.
The retreat is heavily subsidised by
The Christian Muslim Forum and Scargill House.

Scargill is a residential Centre set in the heart of the Yorkshire Dales National Park and fifteen miles from the town of Skipton.
