

SPIRITUAL GUIDANCE IN OUR MULTI-FAITH SOCIETY

A conference for Imams, Ministers and other Muslim and Christian men and women providing spiritual guidance in the multi-faith communities of England.

Monday 28th & Tuesday 29th
April 2008

Hinsley Hall, 62 Headingley Lane, Leeds, LS6 2BX

Christian
Muslim
Forum

The Christian Muslim Forum is built on friendship between Christians and Muslims in England, showing how faith is a catalyst for encouraging good relationships with each other and wider society.

ABOUT THIS CONFERENCE

The Christian Muslim Forum is holding this conference to support Christian and Muslim men and women who provide spiritual guidance to people in the multi-faith communities of the North of England.

The conference will provide delegates with fresh insights into the most effective ways of providing spiritual guidance to both Muslims and Christians. A choice of workshops will demonstrate and discuss practical strategies of use to spiritual guides working in a range of contexts.
